EXPERIENCE

ENTAIN | SENIOR SOFTWARE ENGINEER

Oct 2020 - Present | Vienna, AT

At Entain, I serve as a senior developer responsible for the company's main web framework. My role involves full stack web development with a strong focus on performance optimization and maintainable architecture.

I collaborate closely with the QA, DevOps, and UI/UX teams in a cross-functional agile environment and actively promote component-driven development using Angular and C# to ensure robust and scalable codebase.

EVEDO.CO | FREELANCE WEB DEVELOPER

Aug 2018 – Sep 2020 | Sofia, BG

During my freelance engagement with Evedo, I developed the front-end of the blockchain-based event platform (evedo.co), integrating web3 technologies and optimizing performance across the stack.

GVC GROUP | SOFTWARE ENGINEER

Oct 2015 - Sep 2020 | Sofia, BG

As part of GVC Group, I contributed to the development and maintenance of several crucial RESTful services. My responsibilities included designing scalable APIs and front-end features for a client-facing product.

In addition, I played a key role in sharing technical knowledge by organizing internal workshops on Angular, RxJS, and Redux.

WEBGROUNDER LTD | FREELANCE

Sep 2014 – Aug 2018 | Sofia, BG

As a freelancer, I have delivered a wide range of Web projects utilizing React and Node.js for local and international clients, focusing on quality, scalability, and long-term maintenance.

I provided long-term technical support, consulted on code quality and system performance, and worked hands-on to modernize legacy codebases, often introducing more efficient tooling and architecture in the process.
